WHY SUPPORT JFSC?

- We have been deeply rooted in the community for over 63 years.
- Through our work to promote food security, we delivered more than 1,200 food and basic need hampers this past year.
- We work with our clients to improve financial stability and offer financial coaching when needed.

At JFSC, we believe in the power of community, and that together we can work towards building a better world. Tikkun Olam, the Jewish value of 'repairing the world', is embedded in everything we do. We work to create a better quality of life for our clients by inspiring hope, creating a sense of belonging, and connecting people to their communities.

Enriching Lives and Strengthening Communities since 1961.

WHAT WE DO

Sam, aged 78, lost his wife last year. His source of joy and sole companion was Maxwell, his 6-year-old dog. Alone and without the extra income from his wife's pension, he had just enough money to cover rent, his monthly heating bill, and a small amount of food.*

Living on a fixed income, with skyrocketing food costs on top of rent and heating increases, Sam was facing some devastating choices. When he was referred to JFSC, he was feeding Maxwell and foregoing his breakfasts and lunches. His children lived in other cities, and he was ashamed to ask for help. Sam was down 15 pounds, his health had deteriorated, and he struggled finding energy to take Maxwell outside for a walk. He had lost contact with his friends, and rarely left the house.

Ann, Sam's Caseworker, went to Sam's home with a food hamper and a pet food hamper from the JFSC pantry. She worked with him to explore additional financial support and helped him fill out the application forms. She made sure that both Sam and Maxwell received ongoing food support until Sam's financial situation was stable. Ann made sure he visited his doctor, and she connected him back to his community by helping him enrol in a program at his local community centre to reduce isolation. Ann still checks in with Sam periodically, and makes sure he has a reason to leave his house every day.

ABOUT

Dueling Pianos

We are celebrating the Power of our Community. During these difficult times, we recognize the need to connect, to be together, and the benefits of building some lighthearted enjoyment into our lives. This is part of the critical self-care piece we need for our mental wellness, while we manage uncertainty and our anxieties about the future. As part of our cornerstone value of Tikkun Olam, we invite you to join us in supporting JFSC and our work to enrich lives and strengthen communities. Proceeds from our Annual Fundraiser go towards reducing food insecurity and providing basic needs supports.
